

A DONATION OF

ENSURES THE VFW CAN

- ★ Educate 30 separating service members on how to receive their well-earned VA benefits
- ★ Provide 500 minutes of phone time to homesick American troops stationed overseas
- ★ Serve 5 morale-boosting “welcome home” meals for service members recently back from combat
- ★ Help cover rent, utilities or groceries for a military family struggling with the hardships of war

“For Daddy, being recognized by his country, even with his mental state so depleted, was a real joy. The benefits eased his mind and let him go in peace knowing that my mother would be taken care of.”

Lynne Graham, daughter of WWII veteran James Richie. Richie suffered frostbite and hearing loss from the war. A VFW Service Officer helped Richie secure his benefits before he passed away so that his wife, who suffers from Alzheimer's, would be taken care of.
